

Class: Socioeconomic Analysis

Program
1. Introduction to the socioeconomic analysis of the environmental issues. Implementation of environmental policies and projects: the top down and the bottom up approaches. Methodologies and primary data gathering tools required for the socioeconomic analysis of environmental issues.
2. Social impact assessment at the community level. Concepts, criteria and indicators. Methods and assessment techniques. Outputs. Discussion of available case studies. An empirical application of the social impact assessment techniques.
3. Social performance assessment. Concepts, criteria and indicators. Methods and assessment techniques. Outputs. Discussion of available case studies. An empirical application of the social performance assessment techniques.