

Animal Feeding and Nutrition

Coordinator: Luísa Falcão e Cunha

Introduction. Techniques used in evaluating feeds. Classification of feedstuffs. Study of different feeds and their importance in animal feeding: forages, silages, hays, dehydrate forages, straw, roots and tubers, cereal grains, leguminous seeds, oilseed meals, milling by product, distillery and brewery by-products, molasses, milk products, animal protein sources, fats, synthetic amino acids, nitrogen sources for ruminants, feed additives. Feed intake. Water. Diets formulations. Feeding swine. Feeding dairy cattle. Feeding Beef Cattle. Feeding poultry. Feeding small ruminants.