The Jews of Spain Program

Dates: June 4th to June 29th 2012
Language: English

This Jewish Studies Program in Girona offers students an opportunity to embark on a remarkable journey through the Jewish past of Spain, Catalonia and Girona, where you will explore the contribution of Jewish life to that region's culture and history. Your summer will be challenging and exciting as you learn about the region's vibrant Jewish heritage and its language, as well as exploring the non-Jewish history, politics, and society of the region.

Hispanic Studies Program

Dates: June 4th to June 29th 2012
Language: Spanish/English

This four-week summer program is ideal for students interested in intensive Spanish language and culture learning. Enroll in a Spanish language and conversation class at your level and spend several hours each day in class studying language, grammar, and practicing conversational skills. Additionally, students will immerse themselves in Spanish and Catalan culture through activities and field trips.

The city of Girona and its university

Girona is located in northeastern Spain, within one hour of Barcelona, the Costa Brava's amazing beaches, the Pyrenees or France. Founded by the Romans more than 2,000 years ago, its exceptional old town hosts one of the best preserved Jewish quarters in Europe, framed in a monumental ensemble of temples, towers, houses and walls along the River Onyar.
