The Experience

The University of Nice Sophia-Antipolis International Summer School (UIEN) is dedicated to the teaching of languages. Each year the UIEN welcomes students from all over the world wishing to perfect their knowledge of the French language.

The UIEN also welcomes many students desiring to improve their skills in English, from a beginner level to a much more advanced one.

Teachers of French as a foreign language hoping to invigorate their teaching methodology whilst acquiring new linguistic and cultural perspectives are also welcome.

Program Quality

THE TEACHING TEAM

A dynamic team of teachers, all with relevant university degrees, is coordinated by a group of directors drawn from each of the languages offered.

A DYNAMIC APPROACH TO TEACHING

All lessons are created according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. Various tools are used including the most up-to-date teaching methods and primary source documents. After encountering various communication situations in the classroom, students will quickly achieve greater autonomy outside of the classroom as well.

Lessons take place in multimedia laboratories, audio-visual rooms and traditional classrooms.

We guarantee a course that includes all the fundamental components that a French language learning experience in France should have: teaching, leisure and individualized help. The quality of our program has been officially recognized by the label "Qualité Français Langue Étrangère" awarded by the French Education Ministry, the Culture and Communication Ministry as well as the French Foreign Office.

L'UNIVERSITE INTERNATIONALE D'ETE avec le CUEFLE
a obtenu le Label Qualité Français Langue Étrangère.

GAINING UNIVERSITY ACCREDITATION

Each session of language lessons is worth 6 ECTS credits.

N.B. Only the Educational Committee for Prior Learning Recognition of your college is entitled to recognize the E.C.T.S. you gained at the U.I.E.N. for the purposes of your degree.

THE LANGUAGE RESOURCE CENTRE

Our language resource center is a specialized reading and studying space containing numerous books and newspapers as well as online resources to help facilitate language acquisition.

Nice: a dream destination... for studying!

Nice extraordinary position between the sea and the mountains gives it a truly enchanting beauty: the smoothness of its sun-kissed beaches, the freshness of its countryside, the authenticity of its hilltop villages, combined with the comfort of a luxury resort. Discover a land of contrasts, a unique place: Nice, Côte d'Azur.

The city of Nice is the perfect location for language study abroad; its cosmopolitan feeling, vibrant nightlife and thriving cultural scene are comparable to many large European capitals.

In Nice, old and new come together to produce a delightful result. The town is teeming with history, with the Cimiez Roman ruins dating back to 200 or 300 B.C., its old town and narrow passageways dating back to the 15th century, its Belle Epoque parks, churches and cathedrals, and its opera house...

In the art realm, different architectural styles have left a most exquisite legacy. There are many museums dotted around town: the Matisse Museum, the Chagall Museum, the Modern Art Museum (MAMAC), the Museum of Asian Art, the Archaeological Museum...

Nice is also fantastically situated... the surrounding areas are full of magnificent landscapes, places of interest, world-famous towns and villages... Monaco, Cannes, St. Tropez, St. Paul de Vence, Antibes... Even Italy is just 30 minutes away.

COMMON EUROPEAN FRAMEWORK

		A1	A2	B1	B2	C1	C2
UNDERSTANDING	Listening	I can recognize familiar words and very basic phrases concerning myself, my family and immediate concrete surroundings when people speak slowly and clearly.	I can understand phrases and the highest frequency vocabulary related to areas of most immediate personal relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local area, employment). I can catch the main point in short, clear, simple messages and announcements.	I can understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. I can understand the main point of many radio or TV programs on current affairs or topics of personal or professional interest when the delivery is relatively slow and clear.	I can understand extended speech and lectures and follow even complex lines of argument provided the topic is reasonably familiar. I can understand most TV news and current affairs programs. I can understand the majority of films in standard dialect.	I can understand extended speech even when it is not clearly structured and when relationships are only implied and not signalled explicitly. I can understand television programs and films without too much effort.	I have no difficulty in understanding any kind of spoken language, whether live or broadcast, even when delivered at fast native speed, provided I have some time to get familiar with the accent.
	Reading	I can understand familiar names, words and very simple sentences, for example on notices and posters or in catalogues.	I can read very short, simple texts. I can find specific, predictable information in simple everyday material such as advertisements, prospectuses, menus and timetables and I can understand short simple personal letters.	I can understand texts that consist mainly of high frequency everyday or job-related language. I can understand the description of events, feelings and wishes in personal letters.	I can read articles and reports concerned with contemporary problems in which the writers adopt particular attitudes or viewpoints. I can understand contemporary literary prose.	I can understand long and complex factual and literary texts, appreciating distinctions of style. I can understand specialized articles and longer technical instructions, even when they do not relate to my field.	I can read with ease virtually all forms of the written language, including abstract, structurally or linguistically complex texts such as manuals, specialized articles and literary works.
SPEAKING	Spoken Interaction	I can interact in a simple way provided the other person is prepared to repeat or rephrase things at a slower rate of speech and help me formulate what I'm trying to say. I can ask and answer simple questions in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics.	I can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar topics and activities. I can handle very short social exchanges, even though I can't usually understand enough to keep the conversation going myself.	I can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken. I can enter unprepared into conversation on topics that are familiar, of personal interest or pertinent to everyday life (e.g. family, hobbies, work, travel and current events).	I can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible. I can take an active part in discussion in familiar contexts, accounting for and sustaining my views.	I can express myself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. I can use language flexibly and effectively for social and professional purposes. I can formulate ideas and opinions with precision and relate my contribution skilfully to those of other speakers.	I can take part effortlessly in any conversation or discussion and have a good familiarity with idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms. I can express myself fluently and convey finer shades of meaning precisely. If I do have a problem I can backtrack and restructure around the difficulty so smoothly that other people are hardly aware of it.
	Spoken Production	I can use simple phrases and sentences to describe where I live and people I know.	I can use a series of phrases and sentences to describe in simple terms my family and other people, living conditions, my educational background and my present or most recent job.	I can connect phrases in a simple way in order to describe experiences and events, my dreams, hopes and ambitions. I can briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans. I can narrate a story or relate the plot of a book or film and describe my reactions.	I can present clear, detailed descriptions on a wide range of subjects related to my field of interest. I can explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.	I can present clear, detailed descriptions of complex subjects integrating sub-themes, developing particular points and rounding off with an appropriate conclusion.	I can present a clear, smoothly-flowing description or argument in a style appropriate to the context and with an effective logical structure which helps the recipient to notice and remember significant points.
WRITING	Writing	I can write a short, simple postcard, for example sending holiday greetings. I can fill in forms with personal details, for example entering my name, nationality and address on a hotel registration form.	I can write short, simple notes and messages relating to matters in areas of immediate needs. I can write a very simple personal letter, for example thanking someone for something.	I can write simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest. I can write personal letters describing experiences and impressions.	I can write clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects related to my interests. I can write an essay or report, passing on information or giving reasons in support of or against a particular point of view. I can write letters highlighting the personal significance of events and experiences.	I can express myself in clear, well-structured text, expressing points of view at some length. I can write about complex subjects in a letter, an essay or a report, underlining what I consider to be the salient issues. I can select style appropriate to the reader in mind.	I can write clear, smoothly-flowing text in an appropriate style. I can write complex letters, reports or articles which present a case with an effective logical structure which helps the recipient to notice and remember significant points. I can write summaries and reviews of professional or literary works.
